SHORT LET Enjoy the classic charm of this beautiful home, combining both style and history.

Perfect for group getaways, this home comfortably sleeps up to seven guests and offers plenty of space to relax and connect. Families will love the thoughtful layout, with room for kids and adults to gather or enjoy some quiet time apart. As you enter through the stunning stained-glass door, you'll be greeted by a warm and inviting entrance room. The main living area embraces the home's timeless charm, featuring earthy tones that perfectly complement the classic wooden fireplace. Adjacent to this is a bright living and dining room that welcomes natural light and leads onto a charming balcony.

The lower ground floor features a cinema room, equipped with a projector and comfy seating, perfect for movie nights in. There is a dedicated study area, for those that need to catch up on some work during their stay. The fully equipped kitchen includes an additional dining area and opens onto a spacious garden, perfect for outdoor relaxation or gatherings. A separate utility room with a washing machine adds convenience, along with a bathroom on this level.

The second floor features a serene master bedroom with its own sitting area and access to a private bathroom upstairs, offering a peaceful retreat. Also on this floor is a welcoming second bedroom with a double bed and a charming third bedroom with a single bed, perfect for a child or solo guest. A convenient toilet is located nearby, while all bedrooms share a well-appointed full bathroom on the third floor.

The final bedroom is located on the fourth floor, and features uplifting colourful tones.

The apartment is currently for sale, this means that property viewings need to occur during your stay. On the morning of the viewing, we send in a member of our cleaning team to tidy the apartment. We will always provide advanced notice of a viewing tidy, and viewing. Each viewing typically lasts for 10 minutes.
