There's plenty of space to relax in the Malton's cosy lounge, whether you want to put your feet up in front of the telly or chill out with friends or family. The large bay windows are great for enjoying the views of your holiday park. And with comfy, freestanding furniture you can even rearrange it to suit you. There's even a pull-out sofa bed as standard for when you have extra folk stopping over. The open-plan kitchen and living room make the most of the Malton's space. There's all the room you need to cook up a treat, with a cooker and fridge-freezer as standard, and space for an integrated microwave and dishwasher if you have better things to do than washing up. You also get a freestanding dining table and plush, upholstered chairs. That means you'll eat in comfort, and you can shuffle things around to suit you.
