Seller Insight

“ There is something truly special about a home that not only offers exceptional accommodation but also enriches everyday life. Set amidst glorious countryside with breath-taking panoramic views across the Teme Valley towards Cleve Hill, this remarkable residence provides a rare opportunity to embrace a lifestyle defined by tranquillity, space and connection with nature.

From the moment the current owners arrived, they were captivated by the property's outstanding equestrian facilities and direct access to an extensive network of local bridleways. For those with a passion for horses, the ability to school, train and care for them on-site has been invaluable, creating a seamless blend of home and hobby. Yet the appeal extends far beyond equestrian pursuits. The peaceful setting offers a welcome escape from the pace and noise of modern life, where the soundtrack is birdsong and the landscape is alive with wildlife, including buzzards, red kites, hares and muntjac deer.

Inside, the home has been designed for both comfortable family living and effortless entertaining. At its heart lies a superb open-plan kitchen and dining space, a room that naturally draws people together throughout the year. During the warmer months, it flows beautifully into the gardens and terraces, creating the perfect setting for outdoor dining, barbecues and celebrations with family and friends. In winter, the warmth of the log burner creates a wonderfully cosy atmosphere, radiating heat throughout much of the ground floor.

The accommodation is equally versatile. A particularly appealing feature is the top floor suite, providing teenagers or guests with their own private retreat complete with bedroom, bathroom and lounge space. Throughout the home, the bathrooms have been individually designed and finished to an exceptional standard, adding character and quality at every turn.

The changing seasons bring their own daily pleasures. Winter mornings are illuminated by spectacular sunrises viewed from the dining room, while summer evenings are accompanied by magnificent sunsets enjoyed from the principal bedroom. Outside, the far-reaching views remain a constant source of inspiration, often stopping visitors and owners alike in their tracks.

Despite its idyllic rural position, the property benefits from a vibrant local community, excellent schooling, welcoming country pubs, highly regarded restaurants and convenient amenities. Worcester city centre is within easy reach, while nearby Tenbury Wells offers a theatre, cinema, sports centre and everyday shopping.

For the future owners, the advice is simple: take time to appreciate the views. They are extraordinary, ever-changing and, without doubt, one of the home's greatest luxuries.”*

A separate loading bay further enhances functionality for transport and events.

The facilities continue with a Monarch horse walker, extensive yard areas, ancillary barns and stores, direct access onto an excellent local bridleway network and superb hacking across the surrounding Worcestershire countryside. The overall configuration creates a turn-key professional equestrian facility of genuine regional significance.

There are also several equestrian facilities within easy reach of Hurcot at Kings Equestrian in Bromyard, Lincomb Equestrian and Stourport Equestrian Centre in Stourport-on-Severn and Allenshill Equestrian Centre near Pershore.
