Located just at the back of Sidcup high street and so within short walking distance of a host of shops, restaurants and services and also close by to Sidcup mainline station. On the first floor of a modern purpose built block is this lovely apartment which faces to the rear meaning the lounge and both bedrooms have a great outlook to the well kept communal garden. The accommodation includes large lounge with bay window, 2 bedrooms, modern kitchen and bathroom both with a window. The property has gas central heating and double glazing with new carpets in both bedrooms. To the outside is a garage en bloc and lovely communal garden. This is offered to the market chain free.
