Situation

Cobham is a highly desirable Surrey village that perfectly balances a charming, community feel with excellent connectivity and modern conveniences. Known for its attractive High Street and leafy surroundings, Cobham offers an appealing lifestyle for a wide range of buyers.

The village centre features an excellent selection of independent boutiques, cafés, and restaurants, alongside well-known brands such as Waitrose & Partners, making day-to-day living both convenient and enjoyable. For dining and socialising, there is a variety of welcoming pubs and eateries, contributing to Cobham's vibrant yet relaxed atmosphere.

For outdoor enthusiasts, nearby green spaces such as Painshill Park provide beautiful landscaped grounds, walking trails, and scenic views, while the surrounding countryside offers further opportunities for recreation.

Cobham is particularly well regarded for its accessibility. The nearby A3 road provides direct links to London and the South Coast, while the M25 motorway is easily reached, connecting to the wider motorway network and Heathrow and Gatwick airports. Rail services from Cobham & Stoke d'Abernon railway station offer regular connections into London Waterloo, making it an ideal location for commuters.
