The Property

The Old Yews is a detached, period property found in the heart of the popular village of Clunbury, which sits within the scenic Clun Valley surrounded by glorious Shropshire countryside and rolling hills as far as the eye can see, close to the Welsh/English border.

Thought to originally date circa mid-18th century, this unique cottage is available with no upward chain and has been lovingly maintained over the years by the present owner. The property has an abundance of character including exposed timbers, quarry tiled flooring and fireplaces and offers spacious accommodation, 3 bedrooms, a bathroom, a sizeable living room and a kitchen diner. Distant views of the surrounding countryside/hills can be enjoyed, whilst outside there is off road parking and a walled garden.

The accommodation spans across 2 floors and is made up on the ground floor of a kitchen diner complete with an exposed fireplace, the light and airy living room which also has plenty of space for a dining table and includes a fireplace with an inset 'Clearview' wood-burning stove. A door from the living room accesses the garden, while a further door opens to a stairwell which leads up to the first floor. Upstairs, there are 3 good-sized bedrooms, a bathroom, a separate W.C and a landing area, which doubles up as a useful study area if required.

Outside, a gated gravelled driveway provides off road parking for 2 vehicles. The private garden is largely laid to lawn, has well-defined stone walled borders, flowered beds, a variety of mature shrubs and a paved seating area, which poses as the perfect spot to relax. In addition, there is a useful storage shed/log store.

The Location

The Old Yews occupies a position in the idyllic village of Clunbury which is nestled in the picturesque Clun Valley. The area is renowned for its outstanding natural beauty and is a haven for nature enthusiasts and those of an active disposition. Encompassed by stunning scenic countryside with rolling hill tops as far as the eye can see., whilst the nearby surroundings are popular with walkers and cyclists and present a variety of outdoor pursuits.

Clunbury is a welcoming and friendly village and embraces the 'laid back', tranquil lifestyle. Primarily an agricultural based community Clunbury is made up largely of period residential homes and farms, but does offer facilities to include a well-regarded primary school and a church, St. Swithun's. A traditional pub, The Crown Inn, offers wonderful home cooked meals and is located 3 miles away in the neighbouring village of Clunton, while there is a community shop less than 2 miles way in Aston-on-Clun. Further recreational and educational facilities are available in Clun (5 miles west) and Craven Arms (5 miles East). Both offer a range of facilities, a variety of public houses, a host of community clubs and societies and useful transport links via bus and a railway station (Craven Arms Heart of Wales Line). Further afield lies the historic town of Ludlow (12 miles south-east), Church Stretton (12 miles north) and the county town of Shropshire, Shrewsbury (24 miles north).
