Property Details

A charming and versatile three-bedroom garden flat arranged over two floors of a handsome period property. Neutrally presented throughout, the home offers well-proportioned rooms and a flexible layout, perfect for modern living. The ground floor features a bright kitchen with ample storage, a well-sized bathroom with bathtub and overhead shower, and two bedrooms: a comfortable double overlooking the garden and a versatile single, ideal as a home office or guest room. Direct access leads to a private garden, providing a peaceful outdoor retreat for relaxing or entertaining. On the lower ground floor, a generous reception room forms the social heart of the home, easily accommodating lounge and dining areas, while the principal bedroom is a spacious double with excellent proportions and a tranquil feel.
