Location

Brymbo is a village steeped in industrial heritage, once home to the renowned Brymbo Steelworks, which for many years was one of the region's principal employers. Today, the village embraces its rich past through the nearby Brymbo Heritage Site, home to the remarkable 300-million-year-old fossil forest, one of the area's most significant archaeological discoveries.

Despite its historic and semi-rural setting, the property enjoys a highly convenient location, lying approximately two miles from Wrexham city centre. A comprehensive range of amenities, including supermarkets such as Morrisons, well-regarded schools, leisure facilities, and excellent transport links, are all within easy reach, offering the perfect balance of countryside living and modern convenience.

Entrance Porch

The property is entered via a double glazed entrance door into the entrance porch, featuring mosaic tiled flooring and UPVC double glazed windows surrounding. Double doors lead into the entrance hallway.

Entrance Hall

The entrance hallway features carpeted flooring, a double panelled radiator, ceiling light point, telephone point, Hive heating controls, and an understairs storage cupboard. Doors lead to the lounge, sitting room, and kitchen.
