SITUATION

Wyvern Road is regarded as one of the best residential addresses of Taunton being only a mile to the South of the Town Centre and yet occupying a well established and tucked away location with open fields and footpaths close by. The village of Trull is also within a mile where there are a good range of facilities including a popular primary school and recreational ground, Queen's College and Musgrove Park Hospital are also very close. Taunton, the County Town of Somerset, offers a wide range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities including representation by most national retailers and also enjoys excellent communication links with the rest of the country with fast rail services to London Paddington and the M5 interchange at Junction 25.

DESCRIPTION

28 Wyvern Road is a brand new semi-detached house which has been built by reputable local builder and is offered with the remainder of a 10 year building warranty. The property has been superbly built throughout and includes mellow brick elevations under a pitched tiled roof with solar panels.

ACCOMMODATION
