Description

Steeped in local history, this period timber framed barn is believed to date from c.1600, is full of character and charm being complemented by a delightful garden with the opportunity for off road parking, if required.

In the same family's ownership since 1985, a purchase of The Barn provides a genuine opportunity for a new owner to modernise, remodel and if desired extend it (subject to the need to obtain a planning consent) to create a 21st Century home offering the best of 'old and new'.

On the ground floor, the accommodation includes a kitchen, separate dining room and living room, inner lobby and bathroom. There are two separate staircases that lead upstairs. The 'first' staircase comes off the dining room and leads to a first floor bedroom with vanity sink. The 'second' staircase leads from the living room up to a large open plan space within the roof space which has been used until recently as both a bedroom and hobbies area.

Outside, to the front is low brick wall enclosed paved courtyard whilst to the rear is an attractive rear garden. Adjoining the barn and accessed from the rear garden is a door into what was an 'old apple store' together with a Summer House which has until recently been used as a crafts space. There are 2 attached sheds at the rear of the barn, one of which houses the gas boiler.

A pair of double timber gates which lead into the rear garden and this would allow for car(s) to be parked, if needed, off the road.
