20 Parkhurst Road

Bengeo, SG14 3AZ

CHAIN FREE and within walking distance of Hertford North train station, this charming two-bedroom Victorian terraced home is ideally positioned on one of Bengeo's most sought-after and characterful roads.

The property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking for a home they can move straight into, whilst still offering scope to enhance and add value over time.

The ground floor is centred around a spacious open-plan living and dining area, providing a bright and versatile main reception space—perfect for both everyday living and entertaining. To the rear, a separate kitchen offers practical workspace and direct access to the garden.

Externally, the property benefits from a fully paved private rear garden, creating a low-maintenance outdoor area ideal for those seeking ease of upkeep without compromising on usable space.

Upstairs, the accommodation comprises two well-proportioned bedrooms. The generous principal bedroom features built-in storage, while the second bedroom is also a comfortable size, suitable for guests, a home office, or a nursery. The first floor is completed by a family bathroom.

Overall, this is a well-located home combining character, convenience, and future potential, making it an excellent choice for first-time buyers, investors, or those looking to downsize.
