Property Description

Cakemuir is a handsome and substantial country residence dating from the mid-1800s, set within beautifully established grounds near the peaceful hamlet of Nenthorn, offering an exceptional lifestyle opportunity in the heart of the Scottish Borders. Formerly a manse, the property combines elegant period proportions with versatile ancillary accommodation and impressive equestrian facilities. It enjoys a private setting while remaining within easy reach of Kelso and excellent transport links to Edinburgh and beyond.

Approached via a private gated gravel driveway, the property immediately impresses with its attractive setting, mature gardens and far-reaching rural views. Internally, the accommodation is generous and adaptable, ideally suited to modern family living and entertaining.

The entrance hall leads to the principal reception rooms. The sitting room provides a comfortable family space, featuring a wood-burning stove set between built-in storage cupboards, while dual-aspect windows flood the room with natural light and enjoy views over the gardens. The formal drawing room is centred around a grand open fireplace and enhanced by large windows overlooking the grounds, creating an excellent setting for entertaining. A separate dining room provides an ideal space for family gatherings and dinner parties.

The breakfasting kitchen forms the heart of the home, fitted with a central island and ample space for informal dining. Adjoining the kitchen are two pantry areas, including a large walk-in pantry with extensive built-in storage and a further pantry/larder with space for a freestanding fridge freezer. A useful boot room/utility and shower room add practicality, while the ground floor accommodation is completed by an office with access to a WC.

A sweeping staircase with a striking feature window rises to the first floor, where the bedroom accommodation is arranged around a bright landing. The principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes, while three further double bedrooms also enjoy built-in storage. An additional bedroom currently serves as a nursery or guest room. A family bathroom, separate shower room and linen cupboard complete the upper accommodation.

Grooms Cottage

Positioned to the rear of the main house is Grooms Cottage, a charming semi-detached cottage currently operated as a successful holiday let, offering excellent income potential or equally suitable as guest accommodation or multi-generational living. The accommodation comprises an open plan sitting/dining room and fitted kitchen, office, shower room and two bedrooms on the upper level, alongside an extensive adjoining garage/workshop space.

Garden & Grounds

Externally, the grounds at Cakemuir are around 7.5 acres all together and are a particular highlight of the property. A walled garden provides extensive lawns bordered by mature shrubbery, cairn, colourful flower beds and attractive planting, while various patio areas, one featuring a pergola and another with a hot tub, offer ideal spaces for outdoor dining and entertaining. The gardens also incorporate a wildflower meadow, garden shed and a variety of established borders creating interest and colour throughout the seasons. The property further benefits from two double garages.

Beyond the formal gardens, Cakemuir is exceptionally well equipped for equestrian or lifestyle use, with six fenced grass paddocks extending to the west of the property, a substantial barn with an equestrian solarium, stable block and arena, providing excellent facilities for those with equestrian interests or smallholding ambitions.

Cakemuir represents a rare opportunity to acquire a distinguished Borders home with flexible accommodation, established holiday let income and outstanding outdoor facilities, all within a picturesque and highly accessible rural setting.
