GUIDE PRICE £600,000 - £650,000.

Positioned on the ever-popular Manor Road and just 0.4 miles from Stanford-le-Hope train station, this exceptional three/four-bedroom detached family home offers an increasingly rare combination of space, character and history, all within a stone's throw of the town centre and its array of local amenities.

Homes like this don't come along often. Having had just two owners since it was built, with the current family calling it home for around 50 years, this remarkable property has been the backdrop to generations of treasured memories, family celebrations and everyday moments. Now, for the first time in decades, it's ready to welcome its next chapter.

Step inside and you'll immediately appreciate the generous proportions on offer. The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hallway, a lovely-sized lounge, a spacious dining room perfect for everything from Sunday roasts to Christmas dinner, a well-appointed kitchen, an additional sitting room, and a versatile ground-floor bedroom which would make an ideal home office, playroom or guest suite. A utility room, pantry and ground-floor shower room add further practicality to this superb family home.

Upstairs, you'll find three genuine double bedrooms and a family shower room, providing comfortable accommodation for growing families.

Outside is where this home really comes into its own. The rear garden is simply enormous – the sort of garden that children dream of, dogs never want to leave, and summer barbecues were made for. Whether you're planning family football matches, ambitious garden projects or simply a quiet spot to unwind with a coffee, there's room for it all. To the front, a private driveway provides convenient off-street parking.

Perfectly located for commuters, families and anyone seeking a well-connected yet community-focused setting, this is more than just a house – it's a home that's been loved, lived in and cherished for half a century. The only question is: who gets to create the next 50 years of memories?
