About this property

A beautifully modernised semi-detached period home, Weldon House occupies a discreet rural setting on the edge of the Monmouthshire village of Govilon, near Abergavenny. The property is steeped in local history, having been integral to the local Wildon Iron Works in the 19th Century, remnants of which punctuate the surrounding landscape. The house has undergone a comprehensive modernisation and thoughtful reconfiguration, creating a stylish and characterful three-bedroom home that combines contemporary living with a strong sense of its period origins. The ground floor is now centred around a beautiful open-plan kitchen, dining and living space, which flows naturally out to the garden. The kitchen has been refitted and features distinctive reclaimed 1970s hexagonal tiles from old stock, adding an individual and highly attractive design detail to the room. The recently fitted air source heat pump provides efficient heating throughout the property, with underfloor heating to the ground floor and radiators serving the first floor. Further ground floor accommodation includes a large utility/store room and a range of useful additional storage cupboards. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms, with bedroom one benefiting from its own en-suite shower room. The family bathroom is a particular feature of the house, with a reclaimed coloured suite creating an unusual yet entirely in-keeping finish that complements the stylish character of this unique home. Externally, Weldon House benefits from off-street parking to the front, together with cottage-style gardens to both the front and rear. The property sits adjacent to the Cwm Shenkin Brook, just below the Tyla and in the lee of the Bloreng Mountain, giving it a wonderfully peaceful setting surrounded by the distinctive landscape of this part of Monmouthshire. This is an exciting and highly individual property, where a comprehensive modernisation has successfully combined period character, imaginative design and contemporary family living. Set within an exquisite rural location, Weldon House represents a rare opportunity to acquire a truly distinctive home in this sought-after part of the Usk Valley.

Govilon is located at the base of the Bloreng Mountain which dominates the Usk Valley. Its situation provides panoramic views of the Brecon Beacons National Park. Local services currently include a public house, a village shop, a garage, church and chapel. The canal wharf provides access to the Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal making it an ideal spot for cyclists and walkers alike. Its rural aspect is notwithstanding the fact that it is less than three miles from the popular and bustling market town of Abergavenny and its railway station. Drivers can easily access the Heads of the Valleys Road within minutes and the M4 corridor is 30 minutes away. Govilon is further serviced by the X4 (Abergavenny / Cardiff) and No. 3 (Abergavenny / Brynmawr) bus routes.
