Contemporary Living with Exceptional Outdoor Space

- Recently built (2022) detached home
- Stylish contemporary design
- West-facing landscaped rear garden
- Smart energy efficient heating
- Larger-than-average 3 bed house
- Private driveway with EV charger
- Entertaining patio
- 1044 SQ.FT. / Freehold

Located within the recently built Tulach development, this striking detached home combines contemporary design, energy-efficient living and beautifully landscaped outdoor space to create a lifestyle-focused home perfectly suited to modern family life. Showcasing a distinctive architectural style with tall windows, offset front door and minimalist brick façade, this particular design offers close to 1,050 square feet of living accommodation, providing a level of space not commonly found in three-bedroom properties.

The thoughtfully planned layout delivers bright, versatile rooms throughout, complemented by the abundance of natural light created by signature contemporary glazing. Another notable feature are the gardens which have been carefully landscaped to maximise enjoyment throughout the seasons. To the rear, a generous west-facing garden provides a wonderful private retreat, enjoying sunshine well into the evening. Designed with outdoor living and entertaining in mind, the space features attractive patio areas, and ample room for dining, relaxing and hosting family and friends, creating a seamless extension of the home's living space during the warmer months. The frontage further enhances the property's kerb appeal, whilst the private driveway provides ample off-road parking with an EV charging point. Designed with modern living in mind, the home benefits from the builder's contemporary approach to technology and energy efficiency, featuring Smart heating controls operated via a mobile app, and Fibre broadband connectivity. Situated within easy reach of local schools, amenities, transport links and countryside walks, this exceptional home offers the perfect blend of contemporary comfort, practical family living and superb outdoor entertaining space in one of area's most popular modern developments.
