IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and you'll find a beautifully refreshed home where original features sit comfortably alongside modern finishes. The generous through-reception stretches from the bay window at the front towards the rear, with exposed timber flooring, a striking brick fireplace and an open, airy feel. There's plenty of room for both lounging and dining, while the neutral walls provide a lovely backdrop for making the space your own. Beyond this, the separate kitchen has been updated with sleek dark cabinetry, pale worktops and white tiled splashbacks, creating a smart, practical space for everyday cooking. A contemporary shower room sits at the very rear, finished with contrasting tiling, a walk-in shower and a modern vanity.

Upstairs, two well-proportioned double bedrooms offer peaceful spaces to retreat to. Both have been freshly decorated, with soft carpeting, neutral tones and attractive original fireplaces that nod to the home's Victorian heritage. The larger front bedroom benefits from two windows, bringing in plenty of natural light, while the second bedroom offers flexibility for guests, family or working from home.

Outside, the landscaped rear garden is another highlight, with a decked seating area and neatly arranged planting beds ready for a little personal touch. Whether it's morning coffee outdoors or a relaxed summer evening with friends, there's plenty of opportunity to enjoy this welcome outdoor space.

WHAT ELSE?

· Stratford Park is just a short stroll away, offering open green space, while the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park provides even more room for weekend walks, cycling and exploring.
· West Ham Lane is close by for everyday essentials, with Sawmill Café and Café Olympic among the local options for coffee. Stratford Centre and Westfield Stratford City offer a much wider choice of shops, restaurants and entertainment.
· Stratford Station is within walking distance, providing Central, Jubilee and Elizabeth line services, alongside DLR and Overground connections. Maryland Station is also nearby for convenient Elizabeth line journeys across London.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I spend a lot of time in Stratford — running in the Olympic park, cycling at the outdoor Velo Park, shopping at Westfield or simply meeting friends. The area has come on leaps and bounds since the Olympics, with the new Olympic Village creating loads of amenities, green spaces, sports facilities ... and not least Westfield, which is a must for shoppers and foodies.

Gordon Ramsay's Bread street Kitchen, would be my not-so secret pick, fantastic food, and a stunning roof terrace. For a lazy Sunday brunch, try The Breakfast Club along the canal at Here East. Well-connected and with world-class amenities, Stratford is an area to watch."
