The View represents a rare opportunity to acquire a country home in a serene setting, ideal for families or those seeking a peaceful rural retreat without sacrificing accessibility. The historic county town of Shrewsbury is within easy reach, offering a range of shopping, dining, schooling and leisure facilities, along with mainline rail services keeping you well connected. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate this fantastic property.

As you step into the property you can feel the warmth and charm throughout. The living room features exposed beams that enhance the property's character, together with a log burning stove set within a striking brick chimney breast creating a cosy focal point. The cottage-style kitchen with an archway opening into the dining room provides a sociable yet functional space. A sizeable conservatory floods in sunlight overlooking the beautiful gardens, a dedicated home office provides a quiet and practical space for remote working or study, and a convenient ground floor WC and utility room completes the downstairs accommodation. While the useful cellar offers excellent additional storage and exciting potential for a variety of uses. Upstairs the landing leads to three well proportioned bedrooms, all offering comfortable living space, together with a substantial family bathroom fit with a shower and bathtub to serve the first floor.

Externally, the property truly comes into its own. The grounds offer extensive outdoor space with a variety of uses. In addition to the gardens, there is a workshop, a dedicated home office, summer house, garden shed and a range of useful outbuildings, making the property particularly well suited to those seeking space for hobbies, home working, or business use. The View offers characterful accommodation alongside a range of versatile outbuildings and an outlook which truly justifies the property's name.
