Occupying a convenient position within one of Whitby's established residential areas, this well-presented Victorian mid-terraced home offers deceptively spacious accommodation arranged over three floors, combining period character with a practical layout suited to modern living.

The ground floor comprises two well-proportioned reception rooms, each retaining attractive original fireplaces that reflect the home's Victorian heritage. To the rear, the kitchen provides direct access to the enclosed courtyard, while a ground floor bathroom offers additional convenience and flexibility for everyday living.

Across the upper floors are three generous double bedrooms, including an impressive principal bedroom occupying the second floor. Two of the bedrooms benefit from their own en-suite shower rooms, creating a versatile layout that works equally well for families, visiting guests or those seeking a degree of independent accommodation within the home.

Outside, the enclosed courtyard provides a private, low-maintenance outdoor space, with unrestricted on-street parking available nearby.

Conveniently positioned within walking distance of Whitby's town centre, schools, supermarkets and transport links, the property will appeal to a wide range of purchasers. Whether you're searching for a spacious permanent home, a second home or an investment opportunity, this Victorian terrace offers generous accommodation, practical living space and character in equal measure.
