welcome to

Oak Street, Haworth Keighley

Well-presented through-terrace property located in the sought-after village of Haworth, enjoying delightful views over Bridgehouse Beck and the Worth Valley Steam Railway. The property offers easy access to local shops, schools, and the historic Main Street.

Upon entering the ground floor, you are welcomed into a generous living room featuring a gas fire with stone surround creating an attractive focal point. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base units and offers space for a freestanding fridge freezer and oven, along with plumbing and space for a washing machine. From the kitchen, there is access to a balcony enjoying views over Bridge House Beck and the Worth Valley Steam Railway.

The lower ground floor, accessed from the kitchen, provides useful under-house storage and a WC. This space offers potential for further development, subject to the necessary permissions.

To the first floor, there are two double bedrooms along with the house bathroom, which is fitted with a three-piece suite including a shower over the bath and benefits from a built-in storage cupboard.

Externally, the property offers on-street parking, a small paved area to the front, and a balcony taking advantage of the scenic outlook.

Ideal purchase for first-time buyers. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all this home has to offer.
