LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION

Kensington Way forms part of a modern residential development on the edge of Polegate, offering an excellent balance of peaceful surroundings and everyday convenience. Polegate High Street is within easy reach and provides a variety of local shops, cafés, supermarkets, healthcare facilities and other essential amenities.

Polegate railway station offers direct services to Eastbourne, Brighton, Gatwick Airport and London Victoria, making the area particularly popular with commuters. Excellent road connections via the A22 and A27 also provide straightforward access to Eastbourne, Hailsham, Lewes and the surrounding Sussex countryside.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, the South Downs National Park is just a short distance away, offering countless walking and cycling routes. The nearby Cuckoo Trail is another popular attraction for walkers and cyclists, whilst the communal green spaces and children's play area adjacent to the development provide a pleasant environment right on the doorstep.
