A rural building plot with planning permission for a detached three-bedroom house with garage / carport, large gardens and optional further land in a highly sought-after location with beautiful country views within the North Wessex Downs AONB.

Detailed planning permission was granted by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council on 02.12.2022 for the erection of a detached dwelling to include an entrance hall, cloakroom, utility room, study, snug, lounge, kitchen / dining room, two bedrooms with ensuites, third bedroom and family bathroom plus a detached garage / carport. Concrete foundations for the garage / carport were completed in 2025 and recorded by Building Control as commencement of work on the site.

The plot extends to approx. a quarter of an acre and there is an option to acquire further land by negotiation.

The property is situated in a highly desirable rural location to the south of Highclere village with wonderful views over neighbouring equestrian grazing paddocks. The surrounding area is extremely popular for dog walking, cycling and horse riding whilst Highclere is famous for its castle.

There is a popular pub, the Highclere Red House, in the centre of the village with a thriving deli/fresh produce stall open on Tuesdays – Saturdays. Neighbouring Woolton Hill has a Post Office, convenience store, school and pub and wider ranges of shops and amenities can be found in Newbury and Andover. There's a wide choice of independent and state school locally, including St Thomas' CE Infant's, Woolton Hill Junior's, Thorngrove, St Martin's CE primary, Cheam, Brockhurst & Marlston, Elstree, St Andrew's, Bradfield College, Downe House and Pangbourne College.
