15 Aldridge Lane

Fornham All Saints, Bury St. Edmunds

- Unique period attached property
- Tucked away position, end of lane
- Close to village centre
- South-west gardens, parking area
- Sitting room, Dining / family room
- Fitted kitchen, ground floor bathroom
- 3 bedrooms, character features

A charming period cottage, believed to date from around the 17th century, situated towards the end of a leafy private lane behind All Saints Church and within easy reach of village amenities.

Forming part of a small cluster of former farm cottages, the property is not listed but lies within the Conservation Area and offers far more practical accommodation than might be expected, with good ceiling heights, comfortable room sizes and a straight staircase. The home includes a dual-aspect sitting room with open fireplace and exposed timbers, bathroom, modern Shaker-style kitchen, spacious dining/family room and three bedrooms. Improvements include mains gas central heating, double glazing, and solar panels

Outside are south-west facing cottage gardens, parking for several vehicles, shed, greenhouse
