Situated in a popular locality within Havant, this three-bedroom detached chalet bungalow is beautifully presented throughout and boasts spacious living accommodation, off road parking and generous landscaped rear garden.

Upon approach to the property, a generous driveway provides parking for multiple vehicles and access to the detached garage. The hallway welcomes you inside providing access to all ground floor rooms and stairs to primary bedroom with en-suite. With an abundance of light flowing in through all areas of the home, the living room offers a large and restful space with dual aspect windows and feature centralised fireplace. With glass doors leading through to the kitchen, the space opens into the dining area with rear extension boasting roof lantern and rear access to garden. The kitchen is a white shaker style with substantial thickness quartz worktops for optimum finesse and range cooker. Two sizeable south facing double bedrooms, complete with beautiful bay fronted windows, are positioned to the front elevation of the property and are again flooded with natural light. The downstairs family bathroom is a modern and fresh finish with walk-in shower and storage vanity units to encompass sink and WC.

To the first floor, a well-considered loft conversion has been finished to a great standard offering primary bedroom suite with bathroom facilities. Boasting views across the large rear garden, the bedroom space is naturally light and benefits from built in storage, contemporary décor and relaxing aesthetic. The bathroom consists of decorative roll top freestanding bath, vanity unit and practical WC. Within the conversion, the current owners have utilised the space adjacent to the en-suite to create an additional dressing area. There is also plenty of eaves storage available which is accessible from multiple areas.

Outside, an expansive and well-maintained large rear garden is zoned with brick paving covered by a pergola, lawn with borders and patio.
