Lead In

A beautifully presented four-bedroom home constructed in attractive stone-built brickwork sourced from a local quarry, perfectly blending character and charm with modern living. Situated amongst similar style properties within this highly desirable village setting, the home offers spacious and versatile accommodation throughout.

Externally, the property enjoys well maintained gardens with courtyard areas surrounded by mature plants and shrubs, together with a useful garage and driveway providing ample off-street parking. Internally, the property is finished to a high standard throughout and briefly comprises two spacious reception rooms and a lovely fitted kitchen complete with integral appliances. The master bedroom benefits from its own ensuite bathroom, creating an ideal private retreat.

Homes within this area rarely remain on the market for long and are highly sought after due to the picturesque village location, excellent connectivity to motorway and transport links, and access to well regarded primary and secondary schools nearby.

The village of Badsworth offers a charming community feel with a local pub, church, village hall, and beautiful countryside walks and footpaths all close by.
