"Feeling Confined"

You will find plenty of space in this extended, versatile semi-detached dormer bungalow situated in this very desirable setting. The location is very convenient within easy reach of the town centre, bus routes, schools, woodland walks, and a wealth of amenities perfect for those who are retired, but also families. The interior is equally suitable with a generous adaptable floorplan which includes an entrance hall, modern Kitchen/Dining/Family room with integrated oven and hob flowing to the dining/family room overlooking the garden. The living room has a bay window and feature fireplace, the ground floor continues with a double bedroom, shower room, study and a separate optional Snug/ fourth bedroom. Upstairs the landing leads to a further two bedrooms, one of which is double sized. Partial Gas central heating and UPVC double glazing complete the inside. Outside, a good size private driveway offers parking for three / four cars, the foregarden enjoys a mature feel and the lovely rear garden has a patio and lawned area. A surprisingly large home with a very flexible interior.
