SITUATION

The property is situated in the rural hamlet of Trefanny Hill between the villages Lanreath and Duloe. The market town of Liskeard is 10.9 miles with a range of amenities including mainline railway station with regular services to London Paddington via Plymouth and Exeter.

The large coastal town of Looe is just over 5 miles away, with a further range of everyday amenities including schools, many small shops, restaurants, galleries and pubs together with a bustling working fishing harbour. The South Cornish coastline offers a variety of popular beaches and access to the stunning South West Coast Path.

The city of Plymouth is 24.8 miles offering a more comprehensive range of cultural, sporting and shopping facilities. Domestic and international flights are available from Newquay and Exeter airports.

MAIN HOUSE

This superbly presented stone detached house offers a wealth of charm and character throughout and the accommodation briefly comprises; a spacious open plan kitchen/dining room with a range of wall mounted units, base units and drawers, island providing further work surface and cupboard space, sink, built in cooker with a hob and extractor hood over, space for appliances, an impressive fireplace housing a wood burning stove and stairs rising to the first floor.

A doorway from the kitchen leads into the generous sitting room with a wood burning stove, double doors out to the terrace, a secondary staircase leading to the first floor a door through to the downstairs shower room with a shower, WC and a wash hand basin.

The first floor comprises a landing, 3 bedrooms and a bathroom with a bath, WC and a wash hand basin. The staircase from the kitchen dining room leads up to the landing with access to each of the bedrooms and bathroom, however the secondary staircase leads exclusively up to Bedroom 1.

ANNEXE

A well presented and delightful converted stone barn, providing an impressive self-contained annexe. The accommodation comprises; an entrance hall which leads into a most impressive open plan kitchen/living space with a vaulted a-frame ceiling, flagstone flooring and a wood burning stove. The kitchen area comprises; a range of wall mounted cupboards, base units and drawers, sink, built in cooker with a hob and extractor hood over, integrated dishwasher, island with additional work surface and cupboard space, space for appliances.

A door leads through to an attractive double bedroom with the accommodation being completed by a shower room located off the entrance hall.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached by a private drive leading to a parking space for the annexe and then leading down past the main house to an area of parking for numerous vehicles in front of a stone garage/workshop.

Adjacent to the parking there is a beautiful sloping paddock. There is currently a shepherd's hut in the paddock but please note that this is being taken by the current owners.

The gardens around the main house are mainly laid to lawn with a range of trees, mature shrub borders and flower beds. A superb terrace off the sitting room offers an ideal space for outdoor dining with fantastic views over the land and countryside beyond.

In all the property extends to approximately 1.55 acres.
