Endmoor, Kendal, LA8 0EW

Guide Price £440,000

A beautiful four bedroom end terraced, ideal for a family home located in a row of cottages outside of Endmoor, if you are looking for a rural location but close to Kendal this is perfect for you. The property benefits with double glazed windows, a large spacious garden and plenty of parking.

The accommodation comprises of; Entrance hall, living room, dining room, a ground floor wet room, large basement, whilst to the first floor you will find two double bedrooms and the family bathroom, then rising to the second floor there is a large third bedroom with an ensuite wc and the fourth bedroom. Outside there are spacious gardens, including a built in pond and one being a growing fruit and vegetable patch which is great for those who love gardening.

Endmoor is a small, traditional South Lakeland village, roughly 5 miles south-east of Kendal, sitting close to the A65. It has a distinctly rural feel while being remarkably convenient for Kendal, the M6, the wider Lake District and main transport routes. . The cottages sit amongst older properties and open countryside, giving it much more of a rural hamlet/village character.
