Dennan Road, KT6

The ground floor has been thoughtfully designed to cater to both entertaining and modern family living. A stylish front reception room provides a clever space separated by a smart wooden screen, while the heart of the home lies in the impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and family space. Bi-folding doors open onto a private landscaped garden which features a decked terrace for al fresco dining alongside a well-maintained lawn, offering both practicality and tranquillity. Further benefits include a garage and off-street parking, to the side and to the front of the property.

The upper floors are equally spacious, comprising five generously proportioned bedrooms. Two benefit from en suite bathrooms, while a beautifully finished family bathroom serves the remaining accommodation. A convenient ground floor WC completes the layout.
