Meadowland Close

Positioned within a well regarded residential setting on the edge of Caerphilly, this thoughtfully arranged end terrace townhouse offers generous and adaptable accommodation set across three levels. The house has a calm, practical flow, with spaces that feel considered and comfortable, well suited to modern family life while retaining a sense of privacy and balance.

The ground floor is arranged around a welcoming hallway that leads through to a well proportioned living space opening onto the garden, creating a natural connection between indoors and out. The kitchen / diner sits at the front of the house, filled with light from a wide bay window and arranged to support both everyday living and sociable cooking. With the addition of a ground floor WC, the layout offers a degree of flexibility that will appeal to a wide range of buyers.

Upper floors provide four bedrooms in total, including a principal suite occupying the top floor with its own en suite facilities and fitted storage. The remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom, making the house equally suited to growing families, those working from home or buyers seeking adaptable space. Outside is a single garage and driveway for off street parking.

Meadowland Close sits within easy reach of Caerphilly town centre, where a range of independent shops, cafés and amenities can be found alongside the historic Caerphilly Castle and surrounding parkland. The area is well served by local schools, both primary and secondary, and benefits from excellent transport links, including Caerphilly railway station offering direct access into Cardiff. Road links to the A468 and A470 provide straightforward connections across south Wales, while nearby countryside offers opportunities for walking and outdoor pursuits. This is a home that combines space, practicality and location in equal measure.
