Detached four bedroom house
Spacious accommodation
Generous rear garden, garage, parking

This impressive four-bedroom detached family home is located within the highly sought-after St. Mary's Garden Village, a modern and thoughtfully planned development that perfectly balances countryside charm with contemporary convenience. It has also been carefully designed to promote a healthy, active lifestyle with an abundance of green open spaces, scenic walkways, and small, tranquil lakes that are rich with local wildlife making it the perfect setting for family life.

Residents of the development benefit from a range of exclusive on-site amenities, including a community centre that hosts events and activities to bring neighbours together, as well as a free-to-use gym exclusively for residents. There is also an on-site bicycle rental service, ideal for enjoying the dedicated cycling and running paths that wind throughout the estate, providing safe and attractive routes for joggers, walkers, and cyclists alike. For families, the development offers plenty of outdoor space for children to explore and play, while the peaceful lakes and natural landscaping provide a wonderful backdrop for weekend strolls and picnics. The community feel is further enhanced by well-maintained communal areas and a strong emphasis on wellbeing, activity, and neighbourly spirit.
