Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north.

Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project.

Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well-known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year.

In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating.

Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31. The city can also be reached via rail, via the National Express coach network and via airports located in Exeter (49 miles away).

The Hoe

More Property Information

The property features five grand, generously sized bedrooms, providing ample space for family and guests alike. The exquisite bathrooms, including a luxurious main four piece bathroom, ensure that comfort and convenience are at the forefront of this home. Additionally, the basement floor is a remarkable feature, offering a large double bedroom, a utility kitchen area, and a shower room. This versatile space is perfect for guests or can be adapted for multi-functional living.

The property also provides rear off-road parking for two vehicles and is close to local amenities, shops and a short walk to the famous Plymouth Hoe.

With its prime location, architectural features, and modern amenities, this property is a rare find in Plymouth. Whether you are looking for a family home or a stylish retreat, this Georgian gem on Athenaeum Street is sure to impress. Don't miss the opportunity to make this exceptional property your own.
