Individually designed and constructed family residence with attention to detail including widespread use of oak internally and elevations in Baggeridge Russett brick beneath a slate roof, standing on a mature plot of just under half an acre in a village setting.

The wide canopy porch has a tiled floor, recessed ceiling lights and a smart oak entrance door. The spacious reception hall has oak stairs off with an oversailing oak gallery landing, a walk-in oak cupboard and a separate oak room/WC.

The impressive drawing room features a large recessed brick lined Inglenook fireplace with wood burner on a tiled hearth, windows either side and heavy beam over. There is a front facing window, patio doors to the rear patio, and double bevelled glass oak doors leading to the hall.

The sitting room has a brick fireplace and chimney breast with recess, currently housing an electric fire, however with alterations can house a log burning stove with beam over. Double glazed patio doors open to a hardwood double glazed conservatory with laminate floor and French doors to the garden.

The breakfast kitchen is fitted with a range of solid oak base and wall units surmounted by granite worktops, incorporating peninsular units and an inset stainless steel 1.5 bowl sink and mixer tap. There is a dishwasher and a built-in fridge and freezer, countertop lighting, tiled floor, two ceiling beams, and an oil fired Stanley Range in a tiled recess.

The utility room is fitted with base units and worktops and an inset sink and mixer tap. There are appliance spaces and plumbing for a washing machine and a door out to the side.

The dining room/study enjoys a dual aspect, with a feature beam, lovely Parquet floor, a return glazed door to the sitting room and kitchen and French oak bevelled glass doors to the kitchen.

The first floor is accessed via a dogleg staircase with a half landing, feature window over the garden, and exposed feature brick leading to the gallery landing.

The principle bedroom benefits from an ensuite bathroom comprising centre fill bath in tiled surrounds, electric shower over, pedestal wash basin and WC.

There are three further double bedrooms served by two family bathrooms, one having a corner bath and shower enclosure, plus a fifth bedroom or study.

The property was built with a second floor, designed to provide additional accommodation with a landing and three rooms, with Velux rooflights, power and lighting, currently accessed via a ladder but designed to accommodate a spiral staircase, it currently provides excellent storage but would give additional bedrooms if desired.

Outside, the property sits in an attractive, well screened mature plot of just under half an acre, having an electric gate to spacious gravelled drive providing ample parking and access to detached double garage with loft storage.

There are extensive front lawns with attractive hedges and side access to the rear garden which has a patio area, lawns and a small orchard, backing onto fields. There are outside lights, power and water.
