Philbeach Gardens, Earls Court

£3,500 Per Month

A beautifully presented ground floor three-bedroom apartment set within one of Earls Court's most sought-after garden squares — complete with an enormous private garden (approx. 1,100 sq ft) that opens directly onto the stunning three-acre communal gardens of Philbeach Gardens, including a residents-only grass tennis court.

This charming home features a bright reception room, a modern fully equipped separate kitchen, three genuine double bedrooms, and a well-kept bathroom. The flat sits within a well-maintained period building and offers the perfect blend of tranquillity and convenience.

Situated moments from Earls Court Underground Station, the Tesco Superstore, and within easy walking distance of Kensington High Street, the location is ideal for professionals, families, and anyone seeking exceptional green space in central London.
