Location The Ferry House is situated in an unrivalled position on the tranquil western shore of Lake Windermere away from the busier tourist locations. Sawrey is a beautiful rural area of rolling countryside, winding lanes, picturesque hamlets, tarns and woodlands.

Built in approximately 1880, originally as a high class Victorian Hotel, this attractive stone and slate building was converted into attractive apartments in 2006. The Ferry House takes its name from the neighbouring Ferry, which has been carrying folk across this narrow section of the Lake for Centuries, whether by foot or by vehicle, and which continues today to provide a convenient link across to the bustling villages of Bowness and Windermere and beyond.
