Nestled in the charming village of High Humbleton, just 0.5 miles from Wooler, Rose Cottage is a delightful detached home set in an elevated position, enjoying stunning open views across the surrounding countryside.

Dating back to around 1800, the property blends character and history with the comforts of modern living. The cottage is entered via a welcoming hallway leading into a bright dual aspect sitting room, featuring an attractive stone built open coal fireplace. Glazed doors open into a spacious sun room, beautifully designed with glazing on three sides to maximise natural light and showcase the spectacular views. The sun room also provides direct access to the front patio and garden. The bespoke oak kitchen is well appointed with built-in appliances, while the accommodation further comprises a generous shower room and two well proportioned bedrooms. The property benefits from full double glazing and electric heating throughout.

A standout feature is the detached bothy, thoughtfully converted to provide additional accommodation. It offers an open plan living/bedroom space along with a shower room, making it ideal as a holiday let, guest suite, or private workspace. Externally, the property enjoys parking for two vehicles. The gardens include a large patio adjoining the sun room, lawned areas with established hedging for privacy, and an additional generous lawn beside the bothy, offering excellent potential for further landscaping.

Rose Cottage is more than just a home it's a lifestyle opportunity. Offering peace, privacy, and breathtaking scenery, yet within easy reach of local amenities, it is perfectly suited as a main residence, holiday retreat, or downsizing option. Early viewing is highly recommended. Please contact our Wooler office to arrange an appointment.
