Summary

70 St Cleers Orchard is a detached house situated on the western outskirts of the town. The property has accommodation including entrance hall, WC, sitting room/dining room and kitchen. To the first floor there are three bedrooms and shower room. Outside there are gardens to the front and rear with gated driveway, off road parking and single garage. There is also a useful, good size garden workshop.

Amenities

Somerton was the ancient Capital of Wessex in the 8th century and a former market town. It then later became the County town of Somerset in the 13th/14th Century. There is a good level of amenities including shops, bank, library, doctor and dentist surgeries, there are also several public houses, restaurants, churches and primary schools within the town. The Old Town Hall now houses the ACEArts Gallery and craft shop. A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in the County town of Taunton to the west or Yeovil to the south. The mainline railway stations are located in Castle Cary, Yeovil and Taunton. The property is also well served by the A303 linking both central London and the South West, the M5 can be joined at junction 23.

Services

Mains water, drainage and electricity are all connected. Council tax band D.
