CALL FOR MORE INFORMATION!! - Former United Reformed Church and adjacent School House, located in the heart of Brixham. Grade II listed and offering superb versatility or investment potential. Currently utilised as a vibrant community centre with plenty of various uses, the whole is now available FOR SALE.

A very large building, separated by original church (complete with original organ) and versatile school house adjacent. The church has had the ground floor stripped of pews to accommodate many community uses and group practices. The property retains the original gallery above overlooking the first floor. Many original features and plenty of space.

The adjacent school building is more modern and comprises a large ground floor space with commercial kitchen to the rear, lounge area, and office space/meeting area to the front. Upstairs is a large, empty church hall type space with kitchenette, shower room, and boiler room to the rear.

There are various WC's, lobby's and store rooms through the buildings, and the whole presents as a clear development opportunity.
