As you step inside, the spacious entrance hallway welcomes with ample room for furnishings, providing practical storage solutions. The hallway leads into an inviting living room, where feature bay windows create a light atmosphere. A window seat could provide a great addition, whilst a traditional tiled hearth and alcove add tradition. There's plenty of space for a coffee table and sofas.

The open-plan living and kitchen area is the highlight of this property and dual aspect windows allow natural light. An archway connects the living area to the kitchen, which features slate effect flooring and wood effect base and wall units. Equipped with a fitted Indesit oven and hob, Bosch washing machine and a stainless steel sink, the kitchen combines style with practicality. Splashbacks add a stylish touch, while a breakfast bar to the side adds extra dining space along with the ample space for a dining table. A cupboard to the rear houses the Vaillant gas boiler and provides additional storage space.

A WC downstairs aids convenience, complete with feature panelling.

The first floor landing leads onto bedrooms and bathroom accessed. Bedroom 1 is spacious with a bay window, offering room for a desk, wardrobe, and double bed. Bedroom 2, currently an effective twin room, can easily be converted into a double bedroom.

The well-appointed bathroom features a mirror cabinet, a bath with a Triton shower over and stylish wooden floors complemented by blue and white tiling.

Daisy Cottage is currently a holiday let with the furniture and contents available by separate negotiations.

Outside, the well-presented patio area is inviting for dining and enjoying in sunnier weather. This charming cottage style property offers comfort, convenience, and a touch of luxury in the heart of the Lake District. Don't miss the opportunity to make this rare property your own.
