Hugglescote,
Leicestershire, LE67 2HD

Guide Price: £260,000

A beautifully presented traditional three-bedroom semi-detached home which has remained in the same ownership for over 20 years and has clearly been cherished throughout.

The accommodation extends to 973 sq ft and combines an impeccable standard of presentation with a number of appealing original features, offering two generous reception rooms, a fitted kitchen, three first-floor bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, a generous block-paved driveway provides ample off-road parking and leads to a detached garage, while the real highlight is the exceptionally long, beautifully established rear garden, thoughtfully arranged into a series of lawned, planted and seating areas.

Rarely does a home of this type come to market with gardens maintained and presented to such an impressive standard.

Location

Ashburton Road is situated in the popular village of Hugglescote, on the outskirts of Coalville in North West Leicestershire. The property is well placed for everyday amenities, with local shops, schooling and services readily accessible, while Coalville town centre provides a broader range of supermarkets, retail and leisure facilities. The location is also convenient for commuters, offering good road links towards the M1, Leicester, Loughborough, Ashby-de-la-Zouch and the wider East Midlands. Rail services are available from Loughborough, with further regional and national connections available from East Midlands Parkway.

Accommodation Details - Ground Floor

The front door opens beneath a covered storm porch into a welcoming entrance hall, where the quality and character of the property are immediately apparent. The hall features attractive timber detailing, including the staircase and woodwork, together with a parquet-style floor and useful storage beneath the stairs. Doors lead from here to the principal ground-floor rooms.

To the front is the living room, a comfortable and beautifully presented reception space centred around a period feature fireplace. A wide bay window overlooks the front garden and allows in plenty of natural light. To the rear is the separate dining room, another well-proportioned reception room with a large window overlooking the garden. The room is attractively presented and features a fireplace with a substantial wooden surround, providing a strong focal point, an excellent setting for both everyday dining and more formal entertaining.

Beyond the hall is the kitchen, positioned to the rear of the property and enjoying views over the garden. It is fitted with a comprehensive range of timber-fronted wall and base units with contrasting work surfaces, tiled splashbacks and space for the usual appliances. A useful breakfast bar provides informal seating, while a glazed external door gives direct access to the side and rear.

First Floor

The staircase rises to a first-floor landing, from which all three bedrooms and the bathroom are independently accessed. Bedroom one is positioned to the rear and is a generous double room overlooking the garden. It is beautifully presented and retains an original cast iron fireplace, with ample room for bedroom furniture. Bedroom two, situated to the front, is another double bedroom and also retains an original cast iron fireplace. The third bedroom is also positioned to the front, a practical single bedroom, nursery, dressing room or home office. Completing the first-floor accommodation is the family bathroom, fitted with a white suite complete with a panelled bath with shower over.

Outside

To the front, the property is approached over a generous block-paved driveway providing ample off-road parking and continuing alongside the house towards the detached garage. The frontage is attractively landscaped with shaped lawn, mature shrubs and established hedging, creating a particularly well-kept first impression. To the rear is an exceptionally long and beautifully established garden, reflecting many years of careful cultivation and attention. Rather than being laid out as a single open space, the garden has been thoughtfully divided into a succession of distinct areas, creating interest and variety throughout its considerable length. Immediately behind the house are attractive lawned and planted areas bordered by mature shrubs, flowering plants and established trees. Pathways wind through the garden and lead to further seating spaces, including sheltered garden structures which provide pleasant places to sit and enjoy the surroundings.

Towards the far end is a more productive kitchen garden, arranged with a series of defined beds and pathways suitable for growing vegetables, fruit and flowers, together with further useful garden storage. The overall result is a remarkably mature and engaging outdoor space which offers areas for relaxation, entertaining and gardening in equal measure.
