INTRODUCTION

Believed to date back to 1895, this impressive stone built Victorian home offers a unique opportunity to purchase a family home in a popular village location. Sedgwick House retains much of its original architectural appeal while offering spacious accommodation for modern family living.

DESCRIPTION

Sedgwick House is accessed via a welcoming entrance hall which leads through to the spacious ground floor accommodation.

The open plan kitchen/dining room is fitted with a range of wall and base units complemented by granite effect worktops.

The room benefits from an integrated appliances including a Rangemaster oven and dishwasher. Through to the dining room, the attractive bay window provides an abundance of natural light, and a large multi fuel log burning stove, creating a warm and inviting heart of the home throughout all months of the year.

The kitchen, garden room and utility area were substantially enlarged as part of a rear extension completed in 2009, creating generous and practical living space ideally suited to modern family living.

Across the hallway are two reception rooms. The formal reception room features an open fire with an original fireplace sourced from another property, perfectly complementing the character of the home, alongside attractive picture rails and alcove detailing.

The garden room, which forms part of the 2009 extension, enjoys views over the rear garden and benefits from a log burning stove set within a brick surround and bi-fold doors opening onto the rear patio.

To the rear of the property is a useful utility/boot room, offering additional storage and practicality with direct access to the rear garden. The hallway also features a useful understairs W.C and further storage.

To the first floor are three double bedrooms, two of which benefit from fitted wardrobes, together with the family bathroom, which comprises a freestanding bath, separate shower cubicle, wash basin and WC.

The second floor provides three further versatile rooms, currently utilised as a gym, an office/bedroom and an additional bedroom, offering flexible accommodation to suit a variety of lifestyles and requirements.

Externally, the property is complemented by a gravelled parking area to the front. To the rear, the garden features a raised lawn, patio seating area and a range of useful stone outbuildings, including a former coal shed. The established borders are planted with a variety of mature shrubs and flowering plants, while the garden also benefits from an apple tree and a pond stocked with goldfish and carp.

Sedgwick House is a fantastic property, blending period charm with practical modern living, which will appeal to buyers seeking a flexible family home in a peaceful and highly desirable setting on the doorstep of the Yorkshire Dales National Park.
