7 Lingmoor View

Chapel Stile, Ambleside

7 Lingmoor View is a well proportioned, two bedroom, mid terrace Lakeland cottage, that will benefit in the future from some moderisation. However it's a cosy traditional property, which enjoys stunning west facing views of the Langdale Pikes. Presently operating as a well established holiday letting property and is being sold with all forward bookings and the majority of contents. The property has the added advantage of private parking for one vehicle.

Positioned in a gently elevated location in the quiet village of Chapel Stile, in the centre of Great Langdale in the heart of the Lake District National Park. The property is close to a variety of amenities, including general store/café and public house. The popular market town of Ambleside is approximately 4 miles away, with a more extensive range of amenities. There are endless walks and climbs from the doorstep.
