1 Bedroom Apartment located in Wakefield

This spacious second-floor apartment sits in the heart of St. John's Square in central Wakefield, inside an attractive, well-maintained Georgian house. It offers modern comfort in a setting full of period charm.

The large living room gets plenty of natural light and looks out across the square. There is a generous large bedroom and a spacious bathroom, so there is plenty of room to live comfortably. The apartment has just been redecorated, with new carpets throughout.

The kitchen is fully equipped for modern living. It comes with a full-size fridge-freezer, an oven and hob, and a washing machine. The apartment also has efficient gas central heating and access to high-speed internet. Pets are welcome.

Parking

The apartment comes with an off-street parking space, and permit parking is also available at the front of the property.

Location & Transport

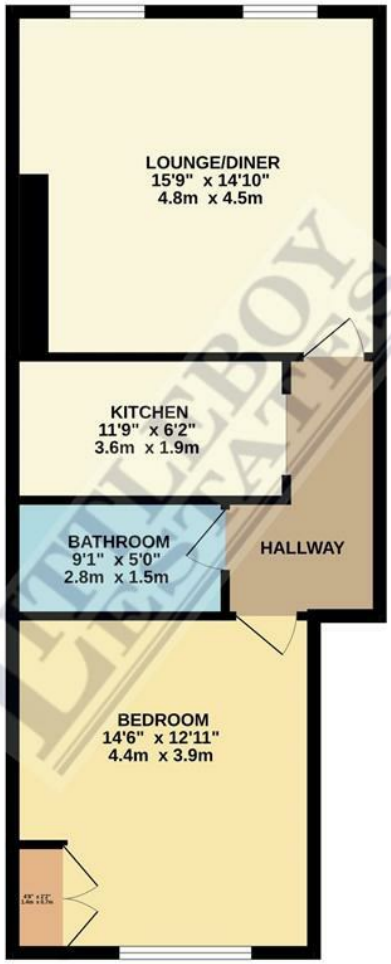

St. John's Square has excellent transport links. Wakefield Westgate station and the city centre are both a short walk away, with local and national rail services. Drivers can reach the M1 and M62 quickly, which makes getting around the region and further afield easy.
