Tucked away in a highly regarded cul-de-sac, this detached family home has been thoughtfully transformed by its current owners — creating a haven where space, light and considered design come together effortlessly.

The moment you step inside, the house opens up into the 30ft kitchen/dining/family room, a calm, contemporary space that naturally becomes the centre of daily life. The Leicht kitchen brings clean lines and high-end detailing. In the sitting area, the Nordpeis wood burner adds a quiet glow on colder nights, and the triple sliding doors draw the garden into the room, making the patio feel like an extension of the home.

To the front, there is a separate sitting room also with the benefit of Stovax wood burner.

A cloakroom and utility complete the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the master bedroom suite feels private and composed, with its own dressing room and a contemporary en-suite finished in high-quality fittings. Three further double bedrooms provide generous family space, and the modern four-piece bathroom has been updated in recent years to the same standard.

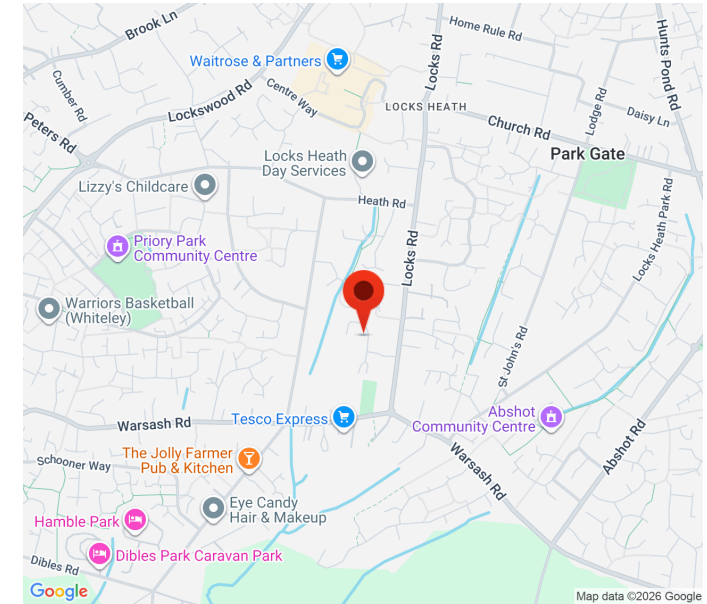

Outside, the garden is sunny, secluded and beautifully landscaped, with established borders that bring colour and structure through the seasons. The patio is perfectly placed for summer meals and weekend gatherings.

All of this sits within walking distance of local schools and shops — a setting that balances convenience with the peace of a cul-de-sac, making it an easy home to settle into and a hard one to outgrow.
