LOCATION

Craighall Crescent is situated in the much sought-after residential area of Trinity, approximately 2 miles North-West of the city centre. Nearby bus and tram services run to the city centre and beyond, and good local shops (Sainsbury's Local) are within walking distance. Supermarket shopping is well catered for in the area with ASDA at Newhaven nearby, and Craigleith Retail Park a short drive away which has a selection of high street stores as well as a Sainsbury's, M&S Food Hall and Lidl. Ocean Terminal retail and leisure complex provides high street shops, a cinema, restaurants, and cafes. Nearby Victoria Park has a children's playpark and tennis courts. Lomond Park is a private park open to residents by paying a small annual subscription. The Royal Botanic Gardens and Inverleith Park are also within the close vicinity, along with the cosmopolitan waterfront at the Shore and Granton Harbour nearby. Trinity Primary and Trinity Academy are the catchment schools with private schools nearby, including The Edinburgh Academy, Erskine Stewart's Melville Schools, and Fettes College. Easy access to the nearby A902 Ferry Road provides links to the major motorway networks, west towards Edinburgh Airport and the Forth Road Bridge/Queensferry Crossing, and east towards the East Lothian countryside, beaches, and golf courses, with The National Cycle Path providing excellent commuter access across Edinburgh and the countryside via Routes 1 and 75, including links to The Water of Leith Walkway.
