Moorland Road

Set along a well-regarded residential street in Splott, this beautifully presented period home offers a considered balance of character and modern finish. From the moment you step inside, there is a sense of care in how the property has been maintained, with light flowing easily through the ground floor and a layout that suits both everyday living and entertaining.

The reception spaces are well proportioned and connect naturally, while the kitchen has been thoughtfully fitted with practical storage and workspace. Upstairs, two comfortable double bedrooms are complemented by a spacious and well arranged bathroom, creating a home that feels both functional and refined.

Splott continues to grow in popularity thanks to its proximity to Cardiff city centre and Cardiff Bay, both easily accessible by foot, bike or public transport. Local amenities are close at hand, including independent shops, cafes and everyday conveniences, while nearby green spaces such as Splott Park and Roath Park provide welcome outdoor space. The area is also well placed for access to major road links, making it a practical choice for commuters.

Offered with no onward chain, this is a home that will appeal to buyers seeking a move-in ready property in a well connected and increasingly sought-after part of the city.
