OUTSIDE

From Fore Street you turn down into a shared driveway which is beneath an archway, leading down to a wooden gate providing access into a substantial front garden, bordered by a large stone wall. To each side there are raised beds, with mature shrubs and trees and in the centre there is a gravelled turning circle with a very pretty Victorian lamppost in the middle. There is an area providing ample parking, a small storage outbuilding and a metal gate opening to the south-facing rear garden. A small footpath leads to the front door, along the front of the house to a further door opening into the kitchen. Adjacent to the rear of the property there is a slate patio with an inset pond, an area of mature shrubs and bushes and a large lawn, bordered by a very pretty stone wall. At the end of the garden a gate opens onto a stream, beyond which there is a public field. Also at the end of the garden is another small stone/brick storage shed.
