FULHAM AREA GUIDE

Fulham Broadway

Prior to the arrival of the Metropolitan Railway in 1880, Fulham Broadway was a quiet cross roads home to the Swan Brewery and Butcher’s Charitable Association. Most of the ancient buildings of that era have now been redeveloped, and today it’s very much the centre of Fulham action with a shopping mall, gym, tube station and most of the area’s vibrant restaurants.

There are few residential streets immediately around Fulham Broadway, so if you’re lucky enough to live on one you’re in a prime spot. There’s also a whole host of independent cafes and eateries nearby including an M & S Food Hall, Waitrose, food market and Sainsburys supermarket. Why Buy? Be in the heart of the action where transport and food options abound.
