A spacious two bedroom, two bathroom end of terrace ground floor maisonette with a secluded sun trapped garden. The flat has recently undergone a fantastic refurbishment throughout with no stone left unturned. A viewing is highly recommended to truly appreciate the stunning finish.

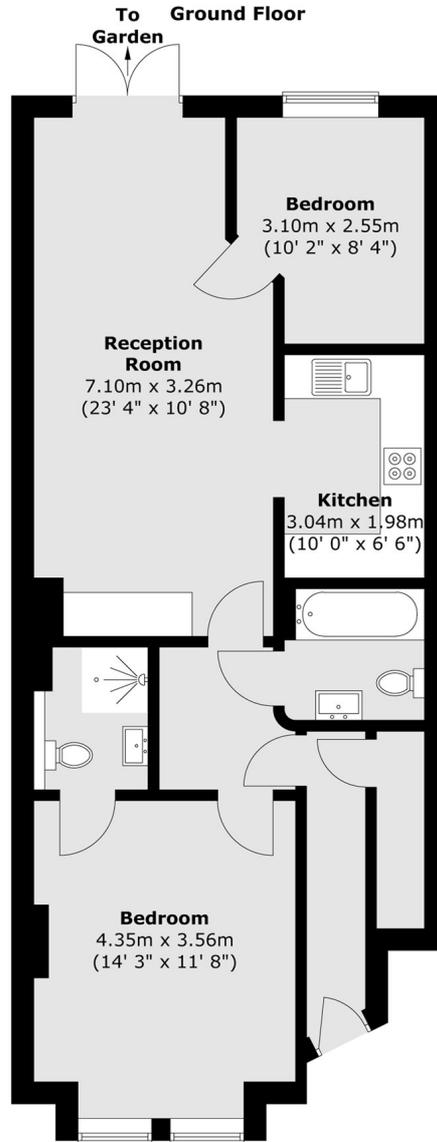

Offering nearly 750 sq ft, this stunning maisonette offers a large double bedroom with en-suite shower-room to the front, additional family bathroom and a beautiful open plan reception/diner filled with natural light which overlooks and leads directly to the sun trapped garden. Separate kitchen off the reception and a second double bedroom with an ideal aspect over the garden.

Ideally located for excellent transport links including Northfields and South Ealing stations (Piccadilly). Ideal bus route on South Ealing road bringing you directly to Ealing Broadway where you can avail of the Elizabeth Line which provides ideal access all over London. The local parks are a joy and include Gunnersbury, Boston Manor and Blondin park which all within walking distance.
