WHAT OUR VENDORS SAY

South View has been an amazing first home for us over the past three years and holds so many special memories, including our first Christmases here, getting engaged and bringing home our puppy. Perfectly positioned within easy walking distance to post hill which is a beautiful spot for ourselves and the puppy. Also walking distance to the town centre, it offers both convenience and a peaceful setting, with beautiful views from the bedroom. The street is home to a fantastic group of neighbours, which has made living here even more special. South View is a home we will be truly sad to leave and one we will always look back on with great fondness.
