Property

Step inside this well-presented three-bedroom bungalow, offering a spacious and practical layout.

At the heart of the home is a welcoming hallway that leads through to a generous lounge, filled with natural light and providing views to the front. The kitchen is conveniently positioned just off the dining room.

The property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, with Bedroom 1 and Bedroom 2 providing double accommodation. A neatly arranged family bathroom serves the home, positioned centrally for easy access.

Outside

Outside, the property benefits from a spacious driveway to the side and a generous front garden providing additional parking space. To the rear, there is a sizeable, low-maintenance private garden.

Garage

A standout feature of this property is the substantial tandem garage, measuring over twice the length of a typical single garage. This generous space offers exceptional flexibility, whether used for extensive storage, hobby or workshop purposes, or as an exciting conversion opportunity. Subject to planning permission, the garage could be transformed into a self-contained annex, home office, studio, or a small business premises, giving the next owner valuable potential to tailor the space to their needs.
